Call for Papers. Collection of articles on "Canada and the Americas" to appear in Comparative American Studies

2.4, Co-edited by Rachel Adams and Sarah Casteel

Focus: Canada is virtually absent from current articulations of hemispheric American Studies, which are often not so much hemispheric as the attempts to bring the U.S. and Latin America into a common framework. We are seeking comparative essays that incorporate Canada into the study of multilingualism, creolization and mestizaje, diaspora and migration, indigeneity, New World slavery, narratives of discovery and conquest, and competing imperialisms across the Americas.

Deadline: April 15, 2004

Contact: Rachel Adams, Department of English, 602 Philosophy Hall, Columbia University, 1150 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, NY 10027.

Emails: rea15@columbia.edu and sarah_casteel@carleton.ca.
