

58th 58e
 ANNUAL MEETING CONGRES ANNUEL
 3 - 5 JUNE 1979 3 - 5 JUIN 1979

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
 SASKATOON

INFORMATION/AVIS

1. A preliminary programme of the meeting appeared in the autumn newsletter.
2. If the association receives a grant from the Social Science and Humanities Research Council to provide some measure of assistance for certain members travelling to the Annual Meeting, first consideration will be given to applicants performing functions at the Annual Meeting, to those of junior rank and to those travelling from more distant points. Application for such assistance must reach the Treasurer of the Canadian Historical Association, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa, K1A 0N3 before 15 June, with a statement of the amount expected from other sources. The members should remember that nobody can be sure to receive help.
3. The numbered papers will be on sale at $2 apiece (or ten cents a page for those papers exceeding the 25 page limit) in the CHA office (Arts Building 101) at the University of Saskatchewan. Those who are unable to attend the Annual Meeting may order papers by applying to the Treasurer of the Canadian Historical Association, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa, K1A 0N3, before 1 September 1979.
4. Each speaker at the meeting has been asked to limit his or her presentation to twenty minutes in order to ensure adequate audience participation.
5. Simultaneous translation will be provided for the presidential address and the Annual General Meeting. The cost of this service has been partly defrayed through the generous assistance of the Secretary of State.
6. The following CHA committees, affiliates and other groups have participated in the formulation of the programme:

CHA-AHA Committee	Military History Group
Committee on Quantitative History	Urban History Group
Committee on the Teaching of History	Western History Group
Labour History Group	Women's History Group
Loyalist History Group

7. The following associations and non affiliated groups have also participated in the formulation of the programme:

The Canadian Committee for the History of the Second World War	The Northern Studies Group
The Canadian Jewish Historical Society	The Regional History Group
The Canadian Society for History and Philosophy of Science	The Society for the History of Medicine

1. Un programme préliminaire du congrès a paru dans le numéro d'automne du Bulletin.
2. Si la Société reçoit une subvention du Conseil de recherches en sciences humaines pour aider certains membres de l'association à se rendre au congrès annuel, le comité ad hoc des subventions de voyage considérera toute demande d'assistance qui lui sera soumise, en tenant compte des facteurs suivants: le but de la participation au congrès, la distance à parcourir pour s'y rendre, le statut professionnel des membres qui feront application, les débutants étant favorisés. On fait application en écrivant au trésorier (Société historique du Canada, a/s Archives publiques du Canada, 395, rue Wellington, Ottawa, K1A 0N3), avant le 15 juin, en indiquant si on compte recevoir quelque autre appui financier. On voudra bien se rappeler que personne n'est assuré d'obtenir quelque aide financière que ce soit, pour participer au congrès, même si la SHC reçoit une subvention.

3. Les communications numérotées seront en vente au bureau de la SHC à l'Université de la Saskatchewan (Pavillon des Arts, pièce 101), au prix de $2 chacune (et de dix sous la page pour les communications de plus de 25 pages). Les membres qui n'assisteront pas au congrès pourront obtenir les communications qu'ils désirent, en écrivant au trésorier de la SHC, 395, rue Wellington, Ottawa, K1A 0N3, avant le 1er septembre 1979.
4. Afin de faciliter la discussion, les présidents des séances voudront bien se rappeler que les participants n'ont droit qu'à vingt minutes pour présenter leur exposé.
5. Les membres qui assisteront au congrès pourront profiter de la traduction simultanée, pendant le discours du président et l'assemblée générale. Le Secrétariat d'Etat défraiera une partie du coût de ce service.

6. Les comités et les regroupements affiliés suivants ont participé à l'élaboration du programme:

Comité conjoint SHC-AHA	Regroupement des chercheurs en histoire des loyalistes
Comité de l'enseignement de l'histoire	Regroupement des chercheurs en histoire du travail
Comité de l'histoire quantitative	Regroupement des chercheurs en histoire militaire
Regroupement des chercheurs en histoire de la femme	Regroupement des chercheurs en histoire urbaine
Regroupement des chercheurs en histoire de l'Ouest

7. Les associations et les groupes suivants qui n'ont aucune affiliation avec la SHC ont aussi participé à l'élaboration du programme:

Comité d'histoire de la Deuxième Guerre mondiale
Regroupement des chercheurs en études nordiques
Regroupement des chercheurs en histoire régionale
Société canadienne de l'histoire juive
Société canadienne d'histoire et de philosophie des sciences
Société d'histoire de la médecine

CANDIDATES FOR THE VICE-PRESIDENCY/LES CANDIDATS
A LA VICE-PRESIDENCE

The following biographical notices are presented in order to assist members in casting their vote for the position of CHA vice-president. The vice-president automatically becomes the association's president one year after his or her election to the vice-presidency.

H. Blair Neatby

Born in Renown, Saskatchewan, 11 December 1924, Blair Neatby studied at the University of Saskatchewan, Oxford and the University of Toronto. He started his teaching career in 1954 at Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown before joining the History Department of the University of British Columbia the following year. He remained there until 1966 when he moved to Carleton University, where he was chairman of the History Department from 1969 to 1973. Professor Neatby's publications include the following works: W.L. Mackenzie King, 1924-1932: The Lonely Heights (1963); The Politics of Chaos: Canada in the Thirties, published in 1972 and translated into French in 1975 under the title La grande dépression des années trente; la décennie des naufragés; Laurier and a Liberal Quebec (1973); and W.L. Mackenzie King: The Prism of Unity (1976). In addition to other work, Blair Neatby has been supervisor of the Education Research Program for the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism, from 1964 to 1967, and he was part of the Canada Council Commission on Graduate Studies, from 1974 to 1978. A member of the editorial board of the journal Histoire sociale/Social History since its creation in 1968, Professor Neatby sat on the Council of the Canadian Historical Association from 1957 to 1960 and he served as Chairman of the Nominating Committee in 1972-1973. He was elected to membership in the Royal Society of Canada in 1977.

Pierre Savard

Born in Quebec, 10 June 1936, Pierre Savard studied at l'Université de Lyon and at Laval. Professor at the latter institution from 1961, he chaired its History Department in 1970-1971. Titular Professor at the University of Ottawa, he currently heads the Centre de recherche en civilisation canadienne-française. Professeur Savard's publications include the following books: Jules-Paul Tardivel, la France et les Etats-Unis, 1851-1905 (1967); Paysans et ouvriers québécois d'autrefois, reproduction of two monographs published in 1861-1862 and 1903, with an introduction by Pierre Savard (1968); Le Consulat général de France à Québec et à Montréal de 1859 à 1914 (1970); Aspects de l'enseignement au Petit Séminaire de Québec (1765-1945), written in collaboration with Marc Lebel and Raymond Vézina (1964); Jules-Paul Tardivel. Textes choisis et présentés par Pierre Savard (1969); Mélanges de civilisation canadienne-française, offerts au Professeur Paul Wyczynski et Mélanges d'histoire du Canada français, offerts en hommage à Marcel Trudel, works published in 1977 and 1978 under the direction of Pierre Savard, who wrote the preface.
